Announcement of Honeywell's 8132 Symphony Graphic Touchscreen

Dear Valued Customer:

Please be advised that the 8132 Symphony color graphic touchscreen keypad will soon be in limited supply and eventually replaced by 8132i Symphony color graphic touchscreen keypad with Internet reporting capability.

The 8132i Symphony touchscreen will be priced equivalent to 8132 while delivering added value of optional Internet reporting capability. Consult your central station for applicable monitoring fees.

Should you need additional information or have any questions, please contact your local Honeywell Security & Custom Electronics District Manager.

Sincerely,

Dean Mason
